In the tippy-top apartment,
All the pidgeons roam.
So many different residents
Call this place their home.

It's like a zoo in this abode.
See this big lizard fleet?
Tubby the Iguana,
Bites the flowers on the sheet.

It's tub time in apartment 5.
Try not to make a flood.
Who can think of a better way,
To wash away the crud?

I smell something cooking!
Grandma is baking knishes.
Try some kielbasa sausage,
But you must help with the dishes.

This artist works with tiny jewels.
He makes a ruby ring.
Creating bitty works of art,
And little, shiny things.

These folks came home at 5 am,
They partied through the night.
No one should drink that much soda.
I hope they are alright.

Welcome to the lobby
It's here we start our tour.
Look at the grand staircase,
And the waxy, slippery floor.
