Staats Cotsworth, PMCA '29 Illustration Appears in 'Mary Stuart'

Ticket holders for the PMCA Scholarship Benefit were privileged to see one of PMCA's most illustrious Alumni, Staats Cotsworth, who has made a name for himself as an artist and an actor. Co-starring with Signe Hasso and Eva Le Gallienne, Mr. Cotsworth, as Burleigh, gave an impressive performance.

Many PMCA Alumni had a chance to renew their acquaintance with Mr. Cotsworth at a reception arranged by his old colleague Kirk Merrick and held at the Art Alliance on January 5, to which the ticket holders for the PMCA Benefit were invited.

PMCA Evening Film Program:

Two showings on Friday evenings, February 5 and March 18 (Room 218, 7 P.M. and 9 P.M.), are free to members of the Alumni Association. Following are the films scheduled for those dates:

- | | |
|------------|---|
| February 5 | Boundary Lines
Grapes of Wrath |
| March 18 | Black Friendship
Images Medievals
Braque
Works of Calder |

These film programs are planned to provide a wide variety of historically important films, each significant for the statement it makes or the special talent of the people who created it. This program is designed to round out the year-round effort on the part of the Philadelphia Museum College of Art to provide cultural enrichment as well as entertainment for its students and other members of the College family.
